

The background features several abstract, organic shapes in shades of purple and blue. A large, irregular shape dominates the right side, with a smaller, more circular shape above it and another smaller shape in the bottom right corner. The colors transition from a light blue/purple at the edges to a darker purple in the center of the shapes.

VOTE FOR EUROPE

Alice, Angelina, Lara, Marie, Giulia, Sara

Why voting is important for European citizens

- Between 6 and 9 June 2024, millions of Europeans will take part in shaping the future of European democracy in the European elections.
- It's a great opportunity to express your opinion on issues that matter to you.
- EU legislation addresses most of people's priorities: the environment, security, migration, social policies, consumer rights, the economy, the rule of law and many more.
- Addressing the many challenges we face is no easy task, and voting is how you can influence the direction we take .

How European elections work

- In some countries, if you want to vote, you have to register
 - You can vote if you have EU citizenship
 - You can vote in the EU country of which you are a citizen
 - If you live in another EU country you can vote there
-
- For example, in the EU country of which you are a citizen. Or, if you live in another EU country, you can apply there.

Which parties are candidates for next European elections

According to the EU treaties, in fact, the choice should fall on whoever is able to obtain a majority in Parliament, and not on a figure chosen behind closed doors by the European Council.

Group of the European People's Party (EPP)

The European People's Party (EPP)

Socialists and Democrats Group (S&D)

The Party of European Socialists (PES)

Renew Europe Group

The Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe (ALDE)

Greens/ALE Group

The European Free Alliance (EFA)

The Left - GUE/NGL group

The Identity and Democracy (ID)

